

Observations in Midwifery

Excerpt from Observations in Midwifery: As Also the Country Midwives Opusculum or Vade Mecum The curious MS. which is now first printed, was purchased by me some years ago from a Booksellers Catalogue. It is written throughout with great neatness, and bound in old calf. There is a paper amongst the Sloane MSS. (No.529) which contains a portion of the Observations, but in a condensed form; and there is in the possession of J. H. Aveling, Esq, M.D., of Sheffield, a MS. resembling mine, both in the handwriting and the binding, though in some respects it is not quite so complete. I am indebted to Dr. Aveling for his courtesy and kindness in allowing me to compare his MS. with mine. My thanks are also due to several other members of the medical profession, and especially to William Munk, Esq., M.D., the learned compiler of The Roll of the Royal College of Physicians of London, for their assistance in my endeavours to obtain information respecting the life of Percival Willughby.
