

A Magazine 9: Proenza Schouler

Founded in 2002, the American fashion label Proenza Schouler has articulated a way of dressing that is relevant to these times while always challenging its designers to go farther and further in their aesthetic aspirations. They have transferred this ideal as guest curators of A Magazine in a volume that takes on a pronouncedly American vision. From its initial interview with the visionaries behind the label, the invocation of Abraham Lincoln and a rapturous appreciation of Donald Judds Marfa and Robert Smithsons Spiral Jetty, this issue unfolds to eventually reveal a collection of provocative fashion portfolios. The issue is interspersed throughout with details drawn from the Proenza Schouler print collection and also includes articles by Simon Critchley and Frederick Turner along with a conversation with Bruce Weber.
