

An Australian Bird Watchers Pocket Book

Grahame King (born 1915), a pioneering Australian modernist with works in major collections, has illustrated this charming 96 page miniature book with humorous impressions of the species he observed on a bird watchers tour in the Northern Territory back in the 1970s. The sketches are accompanied by verses penned by Sydney poet, Jim Allen. Kings gentle sense of humour is revealed in his versions of birds such as the Sprangled Drongo , The Great Australian Hobby , and the Two-eyed Frog Parrot . His more familiar artistry is represented by reproductions of some Northern Territory landscape sketches and prints. This charming little book, illustrated by a renowned Australian artist makes an ideal gift, specially for the bird-lover.
