

Garden and Aviary Birds of India

This book is the second edition of Garden and Aviary Birds of India, a text which covers the more common birds of India in detail. A book that will greatly appeal to anyone with an interest in India's birds, this antique text constitutes a wonderful addition to collections of ornithological literature and is not to be missed by the discerning enthusiast. The chapters of this book include: Classification and Books of Reference; Passerine Birds The Crows, Babblers and Bulbuls; Passerine Birds Shrikes, Mynahs, Orioles, etc.; Passerine Birds Fly-catchers, Thrushes, etc.; Passerine Birds The Finches, Swallows, Sunbirds, etc.; Various Non-passerine Birds Woodpeckers, Barbets, Cuckoos, etc.; The Parrots and Pigeons; and Management of Captive Birds. This text was originally published in 1905, and is proudly republished here complete with a new introduction on ornithology. Frank Finn (1868 - 1932) was an English ornithologist whose other notable works include: How to Know the Indian Ducks (1901) and Ornithological and Other Oddities (1907).
