

Sheikh n Vac (Scape Specific)

In Sheikh n Vac, Yara El-Sherbinis drawings and jokes, which play with stereotypes and provocatively satirize representations of Muslims, are offset by an apparently indecipherable stream of consciousness. Exploring the nuances of language, dialect, speech and comedy, El-Sherbini playfully buries coded messages into a stream of mis-spelt words, which, juxtaposed with visual puns, quips and malapropisms confront the reader with the tensions of religious and racial identities.
