

Andrew Moore: Cuba

This signed and numbered deluxe edition reintroduces the Cuban photographs of Andrew Moore (born 1957). Taken from 1998 to 2012, Cuba offers a series of poignant interiors that display the changing fortunes of the country over its five-hundred-year history, with portraits and landscapes that hint at changes coming to this island nation. Originally published as Inside Havana in 2002 to wide acclaim, this new version expands that book with a reconfigured layout, finer and larger reproductions, older photographs never before seen or published, as well as new work made specifically for this edition. One of the themes introduced in this version is the contrast between the frayed patinas of Cuban homes versus the great, unspoiled beauty of the islands nature itself. It is a stirring portrait of a country isolated from the globalized world, overflowing in remarkable riches.
