To all of them I am indebted. I also wish to express my thanks to Mr. Albert Gamett, the aviary attendant at Lintonholme, with whom I have discussed on innumerable occasions every phase of Budgerigar breeding, management and exhibiting. And just as I did sixteen years ago in the Preface to the first edition, so now I heartily thank those good fanciers resident in the West Riding of Yorkshire who have become such true friends of mine, in addition to Budgerigar lovers all over the world whom I have met or with whom I have corresponded during the very many years in which I have been so intimately associated with this delightful Parakeet. I thank them for their understanding and co-operation on all occasions. It was indeed a fortunate day for me when I was persuaded to buy my wife two pairs of Budgies. It brought a new joy into my life-- a joy which remains and will never flee-away...
