

Lost Time: Part 3 [SHYFT]

He cheated death, but can he save his humanity? Finsbury Gage will do anything to find the man who murdered his wife. Hell withhold information from his superiors in the Psychorithm Crime Unit. Hell cut corners. Hell steal evidence. Hell even augment his prosthetic brain with illegal code. But once hes tasted the power of living at the speed of thought, able to predict seconds into the future, how will he ever go back? And once hes relaxed his grip on humanity, how far will he let it slip to find justice for his wife? Hell find out eight months later, when he wakes once again in a new body with a new name and no memory of his first restoration. He soon discovers he was somehow involved in a series of mindjackings, his friends and colleagues disappeared or locked-up for crimes they dont remember committing. And the person behind them is still out there. Hunting for him. Will Finsbury be able to uncover the mystery of what he became in time to stop more people from getting hurt, or will he succumb to the same temptations and make the same mistakes all over again? Find out in Lost Time: Part Three [Shyft].
