

The Little Flower

For many of us, our hidden potential blooms only later on in life. Mae, the little droopy flower growing on Uncle Als Pick Yr Own Flower Farm, has had bad luck from the start because of a tree thats casting a shadow over her. She longs to be taken home in a pot but since she looks droopy and sick, no one is interested in her. Throughout the spring she watches kids take interest in every other flower but her. The end of Spring is almost here and yet no one has picked Mae. As she starts to lose hope, a little boy named Leo comes looking for something different. Leo finally spots Mae and shes exactly the kind of flower hes been looking for.
