

Element Tree: The Recurring Manuscripts Volume I

As the solar system creates an unstoppable apocalyptic force, the inhabitants of Mother Earth are blissfully unaware of the potential devastating consequences. Only the mysterious MBHK committee has a plan. What began centuries ago is coming to its natural conclusion, in a field. . . at Glastonbury. . . during Summer Solstice. Change is coming and the tribal drums of salvation call only to those who hear the beat. The final reckoning will begin. . .
