

Plants, Androids and Operators (Post-Media Lab)

This book documents the first life-cycle of the Post-Media Lab (2011-2014). Taking up Felix Guattaris challenge, the Lab aimed to combine social and media practices into collective assemblages of enunciation in order to confront social monoformity. Here we draw together some key essays, images and art projects by the Labs participants, as well as a close documentation of its associated events, talks, and exhibitions, to create a vivid portrayal of post-media practice today. With contributions by: Clemens Apprich, Josephine Berry Slater, Micha Cardenas, Sean Dockray, Mina Emad, Bogdan Dragos & Inigo Wilkins, Fabien Giraud, Adnan Hadzi & James Stevens, Martin Howse & Jonathan Kemp, irrational.org, Anthony Iles, Oliver Lerone Schultz, Gordan Savicic, Moritz Queisner, Rozsa Zita Farkas Part of the PML Books series.
