Never play poker with a trickster god--unless youre trickier than he is. Chin Song Ping is always just one step ahead of disaster. On the run from the Tong in the wild west, he gambles with powers, way beyond his control, for the future of America and the life of a pretty girl. Then, a tale of Ping as a boy, caught in the fight of the 19th century between a steam-powered Goliath and a clockwork kung-fu warrior. Last but never least, Ping sets out to rescue Teddy Roosevelt from some scheming businessmen and the San Francisco earthquake--all while trying to find a wedding dress to save the world. Hes a cross between Indy Jones and Bugs Bunny by way of Jackie Chan. His adventures are non-stop thrill rides into a hilarious history that Mrs. Carbunckle, in fifth grade, never got around to telling you about. Three stories ripped from the pages of Six-Guns Straight From Hell, Penny Dread Tales and Tales of the Talisman magazine.
