

Street art in Rome: the murals (Photography and society Book 4)

The book is written in a language readable by any person in the world: photography. It is also supported by English text when there are texts in photographs or pages of instructions in Italian text. Rome is an open air museum and in this book the most beautiful works of art, painted on the walls, are reproduced photographically and interpreted. The murals are identified by area or district, when their consistency in the area is significant, in other cases they are grouped in the miscellaneous section. Each area provides a road map that contents a largest number of murals and informations to reach the place via public transport or private. Il libro è scritto nel linguaggio leggibile da qualsiasi persona nel mondo: la fotografia. Inoltre è supportato da testo in inglese qualora nelle fotografie ci siano testi o nelle pagine delle indicazioni in lingua italiana. Roma è un museo a cielo aperto e in questo libro sono riprodotte e fotograficamente interpretate le più belle opere d'arte dipinte sui muri. I murales sono suddivisi per area o quartiere quando la loro consistenza nella zona è rilevante, in altri casi sono raggruppati nella sezione di miscelanea. Ad ogni area sono allegate, una carta stradale dove ce la maggiore presenza di murales e le informazioni per raggiungere il luogo con i mezzi pubblici o privati.
