

Hell or Empire

This novel has had a new cover and the content Re-Mastered. Grace Turnbull is a tough girl. Born and brought up in the city of Glasgow, she had to be tough. As tough as she is, this didnt help her when she was abducted, along with countless others from all over the Earth. They werent abducted by aliens they were abducted by Humans, why? They were taken to a planet called Heaven, not a place for Angels, or the weak. They were put through rigorous brutal military training, to do battle with what or who? Heaven had surprises. It had shrubs that could detect good or evil thoughts and react, grass that could strip the flesh from your bones, plus something they just couldnt put their finger on. Would Grace along with the other abductees survive or succumb, to the hardships set by her abductors. Or would Heaven have the last laugh? Grace Turnbull fights the Devils from the Black. They are marauding warriors from the planet Comlitch. They wage war from horseback, wearing medieval armour and skull masks, and fight with swords, lances, and longbow. For hundreds of years theyve raided the planet Ollor, their prize, Children. Why? Her investigations reveal a foe too close for comfort. Are the Lords of Heaven human or alien? Will Grace have to go to war against the Lords? Will she and her followers be strong enough? Death awaits her at every turn in the road. Who can she call on for help, will her people follow her, or turn and run? Who are the Keepers, who are the Lords?
