

My Musical Journey On Canvas

This book has written by a famous artist named Amar Singha, who awarded two times in international art world. In this book, he has clearly described the role of some oldest mythological authors behind the creation of a wonderful concept of figurativeness, based on musical rhythm. This unique concept he has found some most oldest mythological books reserved on national library of Calcutta. He has made a beautiful series of paintings regarding this concept, which are included in this book.
