

The Impossible Project Spectrum Collection: 100 Instant-Film Postcards

The Spectrum Collection is an original project launched for Potter Style, inviting photographers to submit original analog images highlighting one color of the spectrum. The Impossible Project has curated the best 50 photographs from this contest to create a set of 100 vibrant postcards. These postcards can be used to decorate, framed by color scheme or simply arranged in a rainbow for a striking design statement. A fantastic gift for anyone who loves the analog aesthetic of old film.
