Warning: False Copyright Claims will result in legal actions by Unlimited Press Works, LLC SPECIAL OFFER $2.99 (Regularly priced: $4.99) John Corey, a federal Anti-Terrorist Task Force (ATTF) agent, along with his wife and colleague, Kate Mayfield, are sent to Yemen by Tom Walsh, FBI Special Agent in Charge and the pairs boss. Walsh had very neatly persuaded (coerced) them into taking the post in Sanaa, the capital of Yemen. Corey was to be an ERT person. ERT stands for Evidence Response Team the feds idea of a crime scene investigator. Kate, being a lawyer as well as FBI agent, was to be a legat known more formally as a legal attache working for the US embassy or consulate in other foreign cities. Walsh had initially informed them that their recent relocation had something to do with the investigation on the bombing of the USS Cole in October 12, 2000. Corey was sent to Yemen in August 2001 for this very same reason and still, 2 years after that hellish experience, the search for justice was still on going. There was one difference from Coreys Yemeni stint from 2 years ago however and his name is Bulus ibn al-Darwish a.k.a. al-Numair a.k.a. The Panther. Corey and Kate travel to Yemen to be part of a five-man team tasked to locate al-Numair pretty straightforward, really. But everyone seemed to be working for someone, loyalties bought and shifted so fast itll make your head spin and of course secrets and lies were served fresh on a daily basis. Between Corey, Kate, Al Qaeda and the CIA, just who was doing the hunting and who was being hunted? Read more.... Download your copy today! for a limited time discount of only $2.99!
