

25 Easy Dog Food Recipes

We all know the cost of dog food is rising. Keeping your best friend fed while on a budget can be a difficult task, no matter what type of food you buy. Unfortunately, keeping him or her fed in a healthy way is even harder; you often see headlines referring to poisonous batches of pet food, and even the large, less-expensive brands are filled with cheap fillers like whole grain corn and poultry by-product meal. It doesn't have to be that way. You can keep your pet healthy and happy with these 25 cheap, healthy, easy-to-fix recipes for homemade dog food! Most of the recipes use ingredients that you have around the house already, and you'll know exactly what's going into your dog's food dish. Save money and make sure your pet's nutritional needs are met in a delicious way!
